THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION THIS WEEK

The Church celebrates the Epiphany today. Epiphany is the manifestation of Jesus the Lord to the Gentiles who are represented by the magi. The magi are commonly known to us as the wise men. The magi represent people of the whole world who are not Jewish but also come to acknowledge and worship Jesus as the true Lord. The magi worshipped Jesus with the gifts they bought for him. What this feast teaches us is that all are welcomed by Jesus. We are all disciples of Christ from different races and tongues but we are all called to worship the Lord and serve our brothers and sisters of the human family.
