SCRIPTURE REFLECTION THIS WEEK

This Sunday, we hear that Jesus moved from Nazareth to Capernaum. Capernaum was North of Nazareth and the Gospel tells us that it was a land of the Gentiles. Gentiles in Jesus' day were those who did not believe in the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The Gentiles not believing in God meant they were darkness. This darkness meant that were in sin. Jesus however does not shy away from those who are sinful, Jesus comes and stays with them. Jesus stays with the Gentiles to preach repentance to them. Jesus also calls us today to repent of our sins. Repentance is at the heart of the preaching of Jesus.
