

DECEMBER 13, 2020
THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION THIS WEEK

On this "Rejoice Sunday," we are called by Paul to rejoice always. Rejoicing comes not from always having things go our way or even to live life without struggle. True rejoicing comes from the peace of God that dwells in us and in knowing that God is faithful and with us always. It is the anointing of the Spirit of God that compels both the prophet Isaiah and the prophet John the Baptist to fulfill their mission to tell forth the Good News and proclaim the Kingdom of God. We too have been anointed. Do we feel the same compulsion to share the Good News, to proclaim the Kingdom, to rejoice always? May we recommit ourselves to being joyful in all we do, empowered by the Spirit and filled with God's peace!

It is the plan to be under roof and ready to pour the floor before January. Pray for good weather and safety for our workers.

HAVING OUR SAY-VOICES HEARD

The Morgan Conservatory has launched a new community project: Having Our Say-Voices Heard Journals. Personal Journals have been created for you to share your stories with your family and with the world. Stories may be of your journey through the pandemic, the social unrest of the '60s to today, or your experience of growing up and being part of Cleveland. Collect stories from your family members over the holidays. The journals will be gathered in February and part of an art show and poetry reading at the Morgan Conservatory in 2021. For more information or to pick up your journal contact Tony Williams at 216-534-7136 or tonywilliamsartist@gmail.com.

CHURCH ENVELOPES 2021

Church Offertory envelopes are being prepared for 2021. As many persons have moved to electronic giving, envelopes may no longer be needed by those families or households. If you will NOT use your envelopes this coming year, please notify Br. Bob or Brittany Taylor in the parish office. Thank you for your faithfulness in these challenging days of pandemic as we seek to be faithful to our commitments to family, church, and community.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Parish Pastoral Council has received its letter of response from Bishop Malesic regarding the recent elections and the issues facing our community. As several of the parishes expressed similar concerns, the Bishop desires to have a meeting in the future in a Town Hall format to which he can speak in person to the concerns raised. Please watch for information that will be shared as soon as it is available. Thank you for your continued prayers for our Bishop and our Church to be vigilant about the issues facing us all in these days of pandemic, division, and transition.
