

JANUARY 17, 2021
SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION THIS WEEK

What are you looking for? That is the question Jesus asks those first disciples and asks us as well. We are all searching for something new this year of 2021 – peace in our nation and politics, a way forward to end the sin of racism and division, an end to the pandemic and the loss of life from it; the list can go on and on, but the deeper question today is what are we looking for in our relationship with God? Like the disciples of old, we have to “Come and see,” to spend time with the Lord allowing him to know us anew and our getting to know him more deeply. May our search for Jesus this year lead us to greater peace, charity for one another, and hope in the knowledge that God’s plan for us is for our salvation and happiness. Like Samuel, may we hear the Lord’s invitation and respond, “Here I am, Lord!”

BUILDING UPDATE

The winter weather has arrived, but the steel and wood ceiling trusses are being installed over the hall this week. The roof line will be clear by the end of the week. There are samples in the Gallery Hallway of materials and colors that will blend together with the existing building and finishes. It is the plan to be under roof and ready to pour the floor as soon as weather and conditions permit. Pray for good weather and safety for our workers.
