

MAY 1, 2022
THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION THIS WEEK

We are familiar with the three-fold denial of Jesus by Peter in the events of the trial and death of the Lord. Today, we are witnesses to Peter's three-fold affirmation of faith as Jesus and the disciples gather at the shore of the sea. This redemptive moment restores Peter into relationship with Jesus and the other disciples that he might take on his role as leader of this evangelical group. We too are given opportunities to reaffirm our faith in the Lord after we so often fail him in our commitment. May Peter inspire us today not to give up trying to be faithful, as the Lord never gives up on inviting us to be faithful. Happy Eastertime!

We celebrate today the First Reception of Holy Communion by our young people at the 10:30 Mass. We congratulate them and their families and pray that they may remain close to the Lord all the days of their lives. We also thank the parents for their support and the commitment of our catechists who assisted in bringing our children to this day. May God bless us all!
