Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

SCRIPTURE REFLECTION THIS WEEK

In today's Gospel, our Lord Jesus gives us a peek into his Sacred Heart. The Gospel tells us that His heart was moved with pity for His sheep who suffered from a lack of spiritual guidance. This glance into the heart of Jesus, also reveals the heart of the Father who in the first reading reminds Israel of His love for them. "You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself."(Exodus 19:4). Jesus' words lead us to recall the message from the prophet Ezekiel in chapter 34 who proclaimed to the corrupt leaders of Israel that they have failed to shepherd the Lord's people as they had been commissioned to do. In that same chapter, God proclaimed that he would rescue his people from those corrupt leaders who either abandoned or abused the people leaving them vulnerable to slavery to sin. God proclaimed, "I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest..."(Ezekiel 34:15). Jesus is the fulfilment of that promise. He continues to compassionately rescue and shepherd His sheep through the faithful leaders of His Church who have received authority from Him to proclaim, "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." We pray that the Lord will send more faithful shepherds who have the heart of Jesus for the sheep.

Live Streaming of the Mass:

Live streaming of the Mass is back. We were finally able to get repairs on the network equipment completed. We are still in the process of upgrading our videography and sound equipment. I also offer a reposting of this reminder: This service is for those who for serious reasons cannot attend Mass in-person(ex. sickness, hospitalization, homebound and some employment situations). Attending Mass in person when you are fully capable is a serious obligation based on the Commandment of the Lord to Keep Holy the Sabbath Day and Church teaching. Missing Mass for no legitimate reason has always been and still is a Mortal Sin requiring a person to confess this sin in the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving Holy Communion.
